Wake Lazy Insides
All-Vegetable Way

Thousands turn to this way to get relief when they're lazy internally and it has been headily, bilious, irritable, listless. A quarter to a half-teaspoon of spicy, aromatic, all-vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT on your tongue tonight, a drink of water, and there you are! Thus, it usually allows time for a night's rest, acts gently, thoroughly next morning, relieving constipation, headache, biliousness, bad breath. BLACK-DRAUGHT's main ingredient is an "intestinal tonic" which helps impart tone to the lazy bowel muscles. The millions of packages used prove its merit. Economical, too, 25 to 40 cents.

Local Ball Team to Have Contest For Team Nick Name

The Lee Theatre baseball team, Appomattox, both of its men over the week-end, defeating the Union Military Academy here Sunday, 13 to 2, and Shradler 15 to 5.

Wednesday afternoon's game drew a fine crowd. Earl Clay and Gordon Gray did the pitching. Bo Stansfield had the hurling chore Sunday afternoon at Shradler Field. Several new faces appeared in the lineup, and the team made a very favorable impression in its opening performance. As in so many games a season, Nat Reesor, James St. John and Nick Leffrich supplied the meekness batting punch.

The team will have three practice games this week. The first will be against the Petersburg Shamrocks on the 11th, the second against the Lee Theatre on the 12th, and the third against the Shradler Field on the 13th.

The team has added a very fine pitcher in Dixie Moore. Dixie is one of the very best outfielders in the South. He is a native of the Lee Theatre and has been with the team for three years, having played two years of professional ball.

The Skyline team will open on Sunday, May 3. The complete official schedule will be published in the next issue of the Times-Virginian.

Contest For A Name
To comply with a new ruling in the Skyline League, each team must have a nick name. The management of the Lee Theatre has decided to ask the fans pick a nick name for the team. The management of the Lee Theatre has decided to ask the fans pick a nick name for the team.
